

MADD Canada's Court Monitor of the Year Award

PURPOSE

To recognize a Court Monitor within MADD Canada who exemplifies commitment, dedication and diligence in monitoring impaired driving charges. This individual volunteers their time, to attend court for the purpose of monitoring impaired driving charges and to enhance our presence within the court system.

MADD Canada is pleased to offer a National Award for Court Monitor of the Year.

CRITERIA

1. Must be a member of MADD Canada.
2. Must be nominated by a member, the Chapter Board, Community Leader or a member of the National Board.
3. Any voting member of the National Board is ineligible. (National President, President Elect and Past President are not voting members of the National Board).
4. Must have Victim Services Volunteer Level 1 on line training, and court monitoring online training provided by the National Office.
5. Attended court regularly for the past year.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Applications must be received no later than June 30.

To make a nomination, the attached nomination form must be submitted. Additional information may be added to support the nomination. Court Monitoring forms must be up to date and forwarded to the National Office.

FORM OF AWARD

The winner will be announced at the Annual Chapter Leadership Conference in September. If the winner is not in attendance, arrangements will be made to have a MADD Canada representative and local Chapter representatives present the award at a function at the local level. A perpetual plaque containing the winner's name will be displayed at the National Office and a keeper award will be given to the winner.

An announcement will be placed in the quarterly MADD Canada newsletter and on the website.

SELECTION PROCESS

- A panel of judges will select the National Award winner.
