

Written by: Sydney Stewart
10 years and under category
2nd Place

My entry for the MADD contest is a story of my sisters and I. When school started in September we would visit my dad. Well my sisters and I would be able to go places. We would go to stores, the hockey rink, to work with my dad, shopping.

Then one day we tried to call him but he didn't answer the phone. Finally he called us back, and told us the bad news. He said a policeman had to take his license because he was drinking and driving.

This is how it changed our life. We don't see our dad that much anymore. We always need another driver if we have to go places, even an important place like the doctor's. Now when we go to his house we just sit around and watch TV. I wish that it never happened. This is bad but worse things could have happened because my dad was drinking and driving. I hope my dad learned his lesson.